By Telegraph

The dispatch is not long enough this morning to contain much that is false, even if entirely based on rumor

It appears, however, that Gen Lee has announced Stonewall Jackson's death in General Orders, and that distinguished rebel leader may therefore be considered as finally disposed of, so far as the war and this world are concerned Vallandigham, the rebel advocate and spy was deservedly sentenced to be confined at Tortugas during the war but the President, whose mercy is sometimes mischievous, thought it sufficient punishment to make him stay with the objects of his love, and therefore sent him within the rebel lines If Jeff. Davis banishes him also, where can he then go? Gen McClellan is reported to be anxious for active service or that his resignation be accepted We hope he will get the service, in some sphere where his military ability will be of use to the country The Government is guarding the avenue of intelligence with more care and vigor than ever so we may hereafter expect short and very doubtful tidings, though they can hardly be more deceptive than those with which we have been both entertained and mortified during the last week

The other items of the dispatch are rumors as to military positions and movements, which will interest those of our readers who are fond of speculative and fancy suggestions.

Relief for the Wounded —The zeal of the people at the East in behalf of the suffering troops has been newly aroused and revived by the anticipation of early battles, and their probable consequences At a recent meeting in Washington, in aid of this object, Judge Thomas, of Massachusetts, made the following remarks, which, we doubt not, all our readers will cordially approve

I supposed, Mr President, that the arrangements for this meeting had all been made Your call, therefore, takes me by entire surprise, and without the least preparation But there are things, Mr President, too plain for argument, too obvious for illustration and enforcement. Our moral instincts plead the cause of this association; it needs no other advocate.

Charity, indeed, begins at home, but wherever is found a wounded body or a wounded spirit, Christian charity finds its home The second of the great commandments teaches us not only to "love our neighbors as ourselves," but brings within the circle of Christian neighborhood the human race.

The objects of your care, succor, and relief, are bound to us by the closest ties, are of our own household, the sons and brothers of those we know and love

One of the infirmities of our people is said to be a proneness to much speaking, that we forget that speech is silver, and silence refined gold; that discussion, debate, resolutions declamation, eloquence, if you will, must not only herald our action, but are sometimes substituted for it.

Whether this be so or not, this cause is one in which "action alone is eloquent" These brothers of ours have left mother, wife, sister, child; have taken their lives in their hands, and have come out to do, if need be, to die for the noblest and holiest of causes the salvation of a nation's life.

We may not hold them back from so glorious a struggle, we cannot shield them from its terrible perils, we may, to some extent relieve their hardships, we may bind up and pour oil upon their wounds. If past human aid and sympathy, we may send them back to sleep with their kindred—"with the old folks at home."

Wasco County —The Dalles papers report that our No 3 boys arrived in safety on Monday, and by their excellent appearance excited general admiration, as we knew they would Every possible arrangement has been made on the part of their hosts to make their visit pleasant and comfortable

We are very sorry to observe the announcement of the severe illness of Judge Wilson which according to the Mountaineer was of such a character as in the opinion of his physician to make it probable that he would not be able to resume his judicial duties for some time to come The Circuit Court was not adjourned the business not having been disposed of We hope to hear of the Judge's speedy restoration to health

The Ladies' Appeal —The attention of every reader is invited to the admirable and eloquent appeal of the ladies to our citizens in behalf of the Sanitary Fund We understand that the Collectors will, without delay, give all an opportunity to prove their sympathy with the suffering those who have not before given will be glad of the present chance, and those who have will not be sorry that they are enabled again to be generous as well as just

A happy illustration of Indian poetry was recently given by one of the chiefs in a speech to the President He said that they had come in obedience to the desire of their Great Father, and alluding to the telegraphic message to the Indian Superintendent, said, that the invitation had come to them "through the air and dropped down like a bird" Which of our two thousand, more or less poets could have dreamed out a more exquisite simile?

Indian Treaty at the Lapwai Agency

Lapwai Idaho Ter May 1[illegible]th 186[illegible]

Editor Oregonian

Since my last there has been two or three "talks" with the Chiefs It was arranged that 'Lawyer' should have all his tribe in here by Monday next and that the Council should commence then His band amounts to about 2,000, whilst those of Big Thunder and his allies Eagle of Light [illegible] and their number about 1,000 [illegible] seems to be great animosity existing between the bands of Lawyer and Big Thunder so much so that they hate each other as much as they do the Blackfeet and until this difference is reconciled the chance of making a successful treaty seems very slim The Commissioners are doing all in their power to surmount this object with what success [illegible] will show It has been stipulated as a condition precedent that Mr [illegible] Whitm[illegible] should be sent for from the Willamette valley to act as interpreter he having been brought up from infancy with the Nez Perces Indians and consequently knows their language thoroughly besides they seem to have no confidence in any one else as an interpreter Accordingly Superintendent Hale has dispatched a special messenger for him and the Council will be necessarily deferred until about the latter end of next week In the mean time the Indians are collecting on the council grounds in great numbers The ground selected for the Council is about three miles from the Agency, up the Lapwai creek and about a mile from the Fort which is now garrisoned with seven companies of United States troops ready for any emergency They (the Indians) are to be supplied with rations to commence on Monday next Big Thunder's band and their allies have been denominated the Secessionists of the Indian nation and it is stated that their sympathies and interests are connected with the Yakimas Snakes and other disaffected tribes in their vicinity, and in the event of an Indian war that they will join their fortunes with them The lands to be treated for embrace an area of over 10,000 square miles and contain much valuable agricultural land besides all the mining districts in this and Washington Territory Should a treaty be made it will cost the Government at least half a million of dollars, but this is a mere trifle compared to the magnitude of the interests involved, to say nothing of the cost of an Indian war which is a certain consequence in the case of a failure to make a treaty It is said some bad white men have been tampering with Big Thunder and his band endeavoring to prevent a treaty in the hopes of an Indian outbreak which may result in a general Indian war on the Pacific coast As matters develop themselves I will continue to post you from time to time

The Clearwater has raised five feet in the past few days so look out for an early rise in the Columbia and Willamette Gov Wallace is expected to arrive here to night

LAWYER

From the Upper Country.

The following news we take from the Dalles Journal, as condensed from the upper country papers

From the Golden Age, of the 13th inst, we compile the following items Mr W Miller had just arrived at Lewiston from Boise, and reported provisions of all kinds abundant, and at low prices for that country There are no idlers in the mines Wages for the season are $7 and $8 per day, the hands boarding themselves Mining operations are carried on over an area of about 35 miles in extent, and the miners perfectly satisfied A project is on foot to construct a ditch or turn the Payette river, so as to furnish water to all the ravines in the vicinity of Placerville Some of the miners obtain remarkable prospects among the largest and densest growth of pines Several farmers have commenced fencing and plowing, and otherwise preparing the soil for crops A line of stages is about being placed on the route from Placerville to Bannock City Centreville and Fort Hawkins, a distance of about twenty miles Mr M is under the impression that there are from 8,000 to 10,000 people in that country, and thinks it is the finest he ever saw, taking all its advantages into consideration and that the mining capacity of Boise is destined to astonish the world In his opinion the country is full of gold bearing quartz

The Statesman says At Placerville and Bannock City there is quite a spirit of rivalry on the subject of the location of the Capital of Idaho Territory The idea that Lewiston has any claims is ignored altogether

Gold is now being taken out of the mines in large quantities A Mr Scott, from the Willamette who came over the mountains this (last) week brought out fifty pounds of dust, the result of his labors last winter and this spring Another man came out at the same time with thirty pounds of dust

Snake River Bars —The miners on the bars of Snake river are doing well and the reports from them are encouraging They are confident many miners will find profitable employment there next winter

Oro Fino and Pierce City —Wells Fargo & Co's messenger brought news that the road is open and in good condition from the above places to Lewiston About 600 men have commenced summer operations under favorable prospects Several pack trains had arrived and goods met with ready sale at fair prices

John Thomas, formerly of Champoeg died at Oro Fino May 2d aged 48 years

The Mullan Trail is open into Florence and a drove of cattle and a number of horses have passed over it into that place

Elk City Mines —A correspondent of the Age states that six ditches have been dug during the last winter in that vicinity and are now furnishing water to the miners The shortest of them is three miles, and the longest nine, costing $12 000 Nuggets have been taken out of Relief Gulch weighing from $ to $50 The miners are doing much better than before the ditches were completed

From the Statesman of the 16th inst, we compile the following summary

Mr Mossman of Mossman & Co's Express between Boise and Walla Walla states that new diggings have been discovered in the vicinity of Eagle Creek about sixty miles from Auburn Favorable reports reached Auburn concerning them, and specimens of dust of a fine quality (coarse gold) brought in Four men panned out $72 in one day last week, carrying their dirt 200 yards to the water

A little girl aged twelve years daughter of George Stark living near Tim Goodall's ranch on Powder river, was drowned on the 10th inst She was playing on the bank of the river and fell in

On the night of the 10th inst ice formed half an inch thick in Powder river valley The frosts are heavy there and indicate that the valley cannot be depended upon for carrying on agricultural pursuits successfully

The Canal Company at Auburn charge fifty cents per inch for water There is much dissatisfaction among the miners on account of this high price

The American Bible Society has sent 7 000 Bibles and Testaments to the rebel army and they have been delivered in Richmond our Government having granted the necessary pass

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 14th.

WASHINGTON May 14 —Gen Lee has issued a general order announcing the death of Stonewall Jackson who expired on the 10th

PHILADELPHIA May 14 —A special to the Inquirer says Vallandigham was convicted of the charge against him and sentenced to [illegible] Tortugas until the close of the war Gen Burnside approved the sentence but the President changed it to sending him South

NEW YORK May 14 The Express understands that McClellan last week [illegible] requested of the President that he accept his resignation or place him in active service Rumor says that the President stated that the active services of McClellan would be required at an early day

The Tribune says Sigel has returned from Washington after an ineffectual attempt to return to duty even on the staff of the commanding General

WASHINGTON May 14 A gentleman from Richmond says there is no indication of a movement The censorship over the telegraph reports instead of being relieved has if possible become more and more stringent

NEW YORK May 14 —Stoneman is at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac The World's correspondent states that [illegible] that the enemy is swinging round his left on the Gordonsville and Richmond Railroad with his right resting on the Fredericksburg and Richmond railroad at Bowling Green protecting the upper and [illegible] through [illegible] those roads at Hanover Junction

Sterling [illegible] Gold closed at 50½

MEMPHIS May 12 —The Jackson [illegible] of the 6th says Grant proceeded towards Port Gibson with the main body of his army and that he is strengthening up entrenchments

The Richmond Dispatch says communication by railroad has been re-established with Fredericksburg

The very latest dispatches from Grant's army are to the 8th inst At that time his advance was within 15 miles of Edwards Station which is 18 miles east of Vicksburg We have nothing confirming the report of a battle on the 6th at Clinton Grant was being reinforced Two divisions of Sherman's corps had arrived A new route has been opened from Young's Point to the river 8 miles long which will greatly facilitate the forwarding of men and supplies Ten negro regiments had been formed

Vicksburg —To reduce no other point in the South have so many and such varied means been tried, as in the case of Vicksburg There was first the great naval bombardment by Farragut in the middle of last year, which was followed by the direct and sanguinary storming of its works by Sherman at the close of the year and these have been followed by the numerous naval and military strategic devices which have occupied a great army and fleet during the whole of the first quarter of this year First, the canalling project directly in front of the city then the Lake Providence project, then the Yazoo Pass project and then the project of the inexricable bayous It is difficult to tell what plan device or coup, the military strategists who have this hard case in hand will next attempt and newspaper strategy being at a discount, it might be unwise to make suggestions

It would appear however from our correspondent's letter, that the hope of starving out Vicksburg on which people generally are now inclined to rely, is not likely soon to be realized He found the whole of the region of country over which our forces traversed, superabundantly supplied with the necessaries of life, and they are all of course, within arm's length of the Vicksburg garrison

What man of genius in this fertile land of genius—what skillful strategist in our army of strategists, will open up to our bewildered country and baffled Generals some feasible mode of taking Vicksburg—and take it —N Y Times

Sensible —Gen Halleck in his late letter to the great Sumter meeting in New York, remarked as follows

I think no man who has carefully observed the course of events in the rebel States since the commencement of this war can now hope for any other peace than that which is imposed by the bayonet The loyal States must conquer this rebellion, or it will conquer them Loyal men of all parties, and of all shades of political opinion must unite in supporting the Government of our fathers, or consent to see the glory and integrity of this great nation utterly destroyed by rebels and traitors This rebellion cannot be put down by peaceful measures Those who pretend to think so are either madmen or traitors in disguise We must either conquer or submit to terms dictated by the Southern oligarchy There is no other alternative The great North and West, with their vastly superior numbers and means, can conquer if they will act together If through factions and dissensions they fail to do this, they will stand forever disgraced in the opinion of the world, and will transmit that disgrace to their posterity

A Woman Whiskey Scene —The day before yesterday in the afternoon Col Baker met a madam on Pennsylvania avenue with a little girl On returning to his office he gave one of his men a description of her, and told him to go down to the steamboat wharf and bring her up This was done and in a short time the fair smuggler was in Col Baker's office greatly astonished of course at her detention and indignantly demanding to know the reason thereof "In the first place, said Col Baker I want you to take off that whiskey" "What whiskey? What do you mean" "Now mind let us have it and the sooner the better" So madam finding that she was discovered made the best of a bad matter and took from under her crinoline seven canteens of whiskey amounting about three pints each and from under the ample skirts of her little girl were taken four of the same sort Thoroughly humiliated and subdued she confessed everything She had been carrying on this infamous traffic for a long time, and had doubtless made a good deal of money at it —Her name is Mrs Elizabeth Howes —Washington Letter

The N Y Herald thinks an excellent exemplification of the suaviter in modo fortiter in re, is to be found in the message of Admiral Farragut to the Mayor of Natchez Indeed it is a fair specimen of that kind of literature which one might expect from the gallant Admiral It is in substance about this — If your Honor does not cause the firing of your people on my fleet to cease I will blow your ancient city to atoms Meantime I shall be most happy to see your Honor on board my ship In this terse message we have all the brusque firmness of the sailor combined most delightfully with the characteristic hospitality of that class

The Evening Post announces the formation of a Loyal Women's League in Hartford Conn the members of which pledge themselves to "encourage and sustain our brave soldiers by constant tokens of love" etc

Strong Testimony —Dr Hall's Balsam is the strongest certified medicine in the world for the cure of Coughs Colds Influenza Bronchitis and the primary stages of CONSUMPTION, giving immediate relief and imparting a cheerful sensation of returning health and strength

LADIES SANITARY MEETING —At a meeting of the ladies of Portland for the organization of a Ladies Sanitary Aid Society, the following officers were elected —President, Mrs H W. Corbett, Vice President, Mrs H Wyman, Secretary, Mrs A C Gibbs, Treasurer, Mrs J. C. Ainsworth. A constitution was adopted for the government of the Society Mrs Wakefield, Mrs. Howe and Mrs Wilson were appointed collectors of contributions, and Mrs T. H Pearne, Mrs Frazar and Mrs Williams were selected as Executive Committee It was voted to receive both coin and greenbacks in contributions to the Society, and to turn all moneys received over to Mr A. Holbrook for remittance. The Executive Committee will be held on next Friday afternoon, at the residence of H. W Corbett. The next meeting of the Society will be held on the 1st of June proximo.

The meeting instructed the President to publish the following —

APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS OF PORTLAND

We, the ladies of your city, prompted by the spirit of philanthropy, have organized ourselves under the cognomen of the 'Ladies Oregon Sanitary Aid Society." We call upon you to aid us by encouraging words and generous deeds in this our undertaking

You have, we are aware, responded cheerfully to the cry of help from thousands of our suffering brethren beyond the mountains, still is heard the wail of OTHER thousands, maimed and wounded by the hand of a ruthless enemy Can we so far, favored of heaven, shut our ears to their prayers or stand idle in this their hour of need? Ye wives and mothers of Oregon! you in mercy are spared the anguish of the Rachels that cannot be comforted will you not contribute your mite into the treasury, that shall carry joy to these mourning hearts? And ye husbands and brothers! your bleeding country calls upon you, not to go forth with your lives in your hands upon the field of battle, but to add of your abundance to the fund for the relief of suffering humanity. We pray you, "be not weary in well doing," you shall be rewarded, not only by the blessings of the recipients of your generosity, but by Him who "loveth the cheerful giver"

We would call upon ALL throughout our State to respond to this appeal.

Persons without the city, sending money to us are requested to send their names and amounts contributed by each.

All subscriptions will be duly recorded, with the names of the donors and amounts donated, and such list published weekly in one of the city papers

There will be a paper presented for a subscription to be paid monthly, so long as the war shall last. We hope our citizens will respond cheerfully, when called upon. MRS. H. W. CORBETT, Pres t.

THE NATIONAL TROUPE OF GLASS BLOWERS —Mr. S. G. Gester, Business Agent of the National Troupe of Glass Blowers, Fancy Glass Workers and Glass Spinners, called in [illegible] yesterday, and informed us that an exhibition of the amusing, instructive and [illegible] works of this company will be given in this city on Saturday evening next, the place and hour of commencement will be duly announced by posters and advertisement prior to the exhibition. We have frequently seen mention made of this troupe in the California and Southern Oregon papers, all of which express high commendations of the pleasing sight and instructive lessons afforded by their wonderful skill in demonstrating the science of this most useful art. Among the many [illegible] on exhibition, and which is perhaps the greatest of all, as there could be no greater, is a magnificent steam engine, constructed entirely of glass by this troupe This rare [illegible] of glass work is undoubtedly a great [illegible] curiosity. A description of this [illegible] says: "The steam is generated in three [illegible] boilers, and furnished with pumps, [illegible] gauge, bell, whistle and safety valve The engine is made of over 2,600 pieces of glass, with fifty different colors, and when in operation, has a beautiful and singular appearance, and as a means of instruction, is [illegible]. Being perfectly transparent, the motion of the valves and pumps can be seen, and the philosophy of the steam engine can be easily comprehended " Many beautiful and costly [illegible] of their arts will be given away to the audience at each entertainment. We deem it unnecessary to urge our people, especially the ladies and youths, to go and see this truly excellent and instructive exhibition, as we have no doubt that every one who can spare the time will be there.

HORSE TAMER.—We have been requested to [illegible] that Professor C. A. Belew, the Great American Hip po-za-ne zap-pri-voi ser, will give a free lecture and demonstration at one of the Livery Stables in this city, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, upon the science of subduing wild horses and making them as [illegible] as house-cats and as docile as sucking [illegible]. A challenge of $1,000 is thrown out to John Rarey, Bill Rarey, or any other Rare ing individual by Prof Belew, that he can beat them all in managing a rearing or any [illegible] bad habited horse, mare, mule, jack or jenny. No doubt his exhibition will prove a rare entertainment.

BROKE JAIL.—A prisoner confined in the County jail, succeeded in making his escape about noon yesterday, during the temporary [illegible] of the jailer. The instrument used in effecting his escape was a common pocket knife. He was put in some time ago for stealing some lead pipe. Officers are out in pursuit of him.

RETURN OF COLUMBIANS No 3 —The Fire Department will turn out in uniform to welcome the return of Columbians No 3 from their excursion to Dalles, who will arrive on the Wilson G. Hunt at an early hour this afternoon. Quite an exciting time is anticipated.

EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold and there is no place in the civilized globe where they have not been sold that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press Yet it is due to suffering humanity and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat, including and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy that they should be shown [illegible] its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT

while the SANATIVE PILLS by preserving regularity in the Bowels and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs aid and assist the perfect operation of the former Katie Lee and Willie Gray.

Two brown heads with tossing curls
Red lips shutting over pearls
Bare feet white and wet with dew
Two eyes black and two eyes blue
Little boy and girl were they
Katie Lee and Willie Grey

They were standing where a brook,
Bending like a shepherd's crook
Flashed its silver and thick ranks
Of green willows fringed the banks
Half in thought and half in play
Katie Lee and Willie Grey

They had cheeks like cherries red,
He was taller—'most a head
She with arms like wreaths of snow
Swung a basket to and fro
As she loitered half in play,
Chattering with Willie Grey

"Pretty Katie" Willie said—
And there came a dash of red
Through the brownness of his cheek
"Boys are strong and girls are weak
And I'll carry, so I will
Katie's basket up the hill

Katie answered with a laugh
"You shall carry only half
And then tossing back her curls
"Boys are weak as well as girls
Do you think that Katie guessed
Half the wisdom she expressed

Men are only boys grown tall
Hearts don't change much after all
And when long years from that day
Katy Lee and Willie Grey
Stood again beside the brook
Bending like a shepherd's crook,—

Is it strange that Willie said—
While again a dash of red
Crossed the brownness of his cheek—
"I am strong and you are weak,
Life is but a slippery steep,
Hung with shadows cold and deep;

Will you trust me, Katie dear?
Walk beside me without fear?
May I carry, if I will,
All your burdens up the hill?"
And she answered, with a laugh,
"No, but you may carry half."

Close beside a little brook,
Bending like a shepherd's crook,
Washing with its silver hands,
Late and early at the sands
Is a cottage where to day
Katie lives with Willie Grey

In a porch she sits, and lo
Swings a basket to and fro,
Vastly different from the one
That she swung in years agone,
This is long and deep and wide,
And has—rockers at the side!

Reminiscences of General Sumner

[From the N Y "Tribune of April 9th]
(Concluded.)

After Fair Oaks, he returned possession of a house on our old line of battle, and the headquarters' tents were brought up and pitched there They were within range of a rebel battery which awoke the General and his Staff every morning, by dropping shot and shell all about them for two or three hours. Sumner implored permission to capture or drive away that battery, but was refused, on the ground that it might bring on a general engagement — He chafed and stormed: "It is the most disgraceful thing of my life," he said, "that this should be permitted;" but McClellan, whose prudence never forsook him, was inexorable Sumner was begged to remove his headquarters to a safer position, but he persisted in staying there for 14 days, and at last only withdrew upon a peremptory order from his superior.

The experience of that fortnight shows how much iron and lead may fly about men's ears without harming them During the whole bombardment only two persons at the headquarters were injured. The surgeon of a Rhode Island battery was slightly wounded in the head by a piece of a shell which flew into his tent; and a private, who lay down behind a log for protection, was instantly killed by a shell knocking a splinter from the log, which fractured his skull There were many hair-breadth 'scapes, but not another man received a scratch.

During the artillery fighting, the day before Antietam, I saw Sumner lying upon the grass under the shade trees, in front of the brick house which served for general headquarters. A few yards distant, in an open field, a party of staff officers and civilians were suddenly startled by a stray shell from the enemy, which dropped about a hundred feet from them It was followed by another which fell still nearer, and the group broke up and scattered with great alacrity. "Why," remarked Sumner, with a peculiar smile, "the shells excite a good deal of commotion among those young gentlemen!" The idea which seemed to amuse him was that anybody should be disconcerted by shells.

After Antietam came McClellan's most costly and fatal mistake, of not renewing the attack and utterly destroying the enemy. His ever-swift apologists explained it by saying that all his corps commanders protested against a new attack, and urged that their troops were unfit to go into battle again Upon hearing this report, I asked Gen Sumner if it was true of him He replied with emphasis: "No, Sir My advice was not asked at all; and I did not volunteer it. But I was certainly in favor of renewing the attack. Much as my troops had suffered, they were good for another day's fighting, especially when the enemy had that river in his rear, and a defeat would have ruined him forever" And yet Sumner's single corps (only one out of the five engaged) had suffered almost half of our entire casualties Of our total loss (12,352) 5,208 cases were in his corps

At Fredericksburg, by the express order of Burnside, Sumner remained on this side of the river during the fighting The precaution probably saved his life Had he ridden with his usual rashness out on that fiery front, he had never returned to tell what he saw Still, he chafed sadly under the restriction As the sun went down on that day of glorious but fruitless endeavor, he paced to and fro in front of the Lacey House with one arm thrown around the neck of his son, his face haggard with sorrow and anxiety, and his eyes straining eagerly for the arrival of each successive messenger

He was a man of high ambition Once, hearing Gen Howard remark that he did not aspire to the command of a corps, he exclaimed "General, you surprise me I would command the world, if I could!" But it was the ambition of a soldier and a patriot He gave to his superiors not merely lip service, but zealous, hearty, untiring co-operation It was a point of honor with him, even when he believed them mistaken or incompetent, never to breathe a word to their disparagement

He was sometimes called arbitrary, but he had great love for his soldiers especially his old companions in arms I heard one of his officers tell a laughable story of applying to him for a ten day's furlough, when the rule against them was imperative Sumner peremptorily refused it But the officer sat down beside him and began to talk about the Peninsula campaign, the battles in which he had done his duty, immediately under Sumner's eye and it was not many minutes before the General granted his petition "If he had only waited," said the narrator, "until I reminded him of some scenes of Antietam, I am sure he would have given me twenty days instead of ten

He was charged with rashness, especially at Antietam—an accusation of the justness of which I had no opportunity of judging But I know it was the mode, about McClellan's headquarters, to say of our most gallant officers —Hooker, Kearney and others—"O yes, he fights well, but then he isn't discreet, he has not the head to manage a battle And veterans of the Army of the Potomac—men on whose judgment I have learned to rely —testify that it was Sumner who saved the field at Fair Oaks, who fought and won the battle of Malvern Hill, and who would have pursued the stricken enemy from that field straight into Richmond, had not orders from headquarters restrained him

He possessed great kindness of heart, he was intrinsically a gentleman—an example which some of our Major Generals might study to advantage His intercourse with women and children was characterized by peculiar chivalry and gentleness There was much about him to revive the old ideal of a soldier—terrible in battle, but with a heart open and tender as a child's

To his youngest son—a captain upon his staff—he was bound by ties of unusual affection "Sammy" was his constant companion, in private he leaned upon him, and consulted him upon the most trivial matters It was a touching bond which united the grey, war worn veteran to the child of his old age He leaves another son in the service—Capt F V Sumner, of Gen Stoneman's staff—and the son in law, at whose house he died—Lieut -Col W W Teall, of the Commissary Department He leaves also two sons in law—both native Virginians—in the rebel army

The order assigning Gen Sumner to succeed Curtis in command of the Department of the West was written before the battle of Fredericksburg, but postponed at the special request of Gen Burnside On Saturday, the 14th of March—just one week before his death - he had received his final orders and left Washington for Syracuse, to spend a few days at home preparatory to starting for St Louis

While the carriage was waiting at the door to take him to the train, I went into his room to bid him adieu Allusion was made to the charges of speculation brought against his predecessor, in the new department "I trust," said he, "they are untrue No General has a right to make one dollar out of his official position, beyond the salary which his Government pays him" He talked somewhat in detail of his plans, and remarked, "For the present I shall remain in St Louis, but whenever there is a prospect of meeting the enemy, I shall take the field, and lead my troops in person Some men can fight battles over a telegraph wire, but you know I have no talent in that direction"

With his friendly grasp of the hand, and his old, kindly smile, he started for home It has proved to him Home indeed We may have greater Generals left, but we have no better soldiers or purer patriots May his memory be green forever in the hearts of his countrymen! A D R

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National State and County Taxes hired help, Rents Drayage &c necessary to carry on his business, but no farmer merchant mechanic or any person has a right to deduct his [illegible] or [illegible] expenses from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year And as many sources of Income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks Interest, &c, (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600

A man may outside of his business spend all and even more than his profits in the business nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600 And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June 1863 And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

From Rev J Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert [illegible], Esq for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans —Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R B. Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it getting better Though I have taken but two bottles I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life
